Specification: the specification for the Goods provided by Buyer to Seller or by Seller to Buyer as agreed in writing between the parties.

2. APPLICATION OF TERMS

2.1. These T&L Purchase Conditions shall govern the Contract to the exclusion of all other terms or conditions of Seller or any variation by Seller unless agreed in writing by Buyer.

2.2. A Purchase Order is an offer by Buyer to purchase Goods subject to these T&L Purchase Conditions. Purchase Orders shall be deemed accepted by Seller's notice of acceptance, or by Seller fulfilling the Purchase Order in whole or in part.

3. VARIATIONS TO THE GOODS

3.1. Subject to clause 3.2., Buyer may at any time by written notice make changes to the quantity, design or Specification, method of packing or delivery, the place or date of delivery or the performance of the Contract.

3.2. If any change proposed under Clause 3.1 changes the cost of or time required for the performance of the Contract, the price shall be ratably adjusted, and a reasonable adjustment shall be made to the time of delivery or date for performance provided that no increase in the price or extension of time shall be made unless agreed in writing by Buyer.

3.3. The Seller shall promptly give Buyer written notice of actual or intended material changes in its raw materials or manufacturing methods since Buyer last purchased like Goods, including changes to ingredients in the Goods.

4. QUALITY AND DEFECTS

4.1. Seller warrants that the Goods shall be of the best available design, quality, material and workmanship, be without fault and conform in all respects with the Purchase Order and the Specification and fit for the purpose as intended by Buyer. Where the Goods to be supplied include services, such services shall be performed with all reasonable skill and care and in accordance with industry best practice. Buyer's rights under these conditions are in addition to the statutory conditions and to any warranties of additional scope given to Buyer by Seller.

4.2. Seller shall apply all necessary measures to guarantee the full traceability of the Goods and any ingredients or parts thereof.

4.3. Seller consents to Buyer's audit and review of Seller's records, books, and documents, upon reasonable advance notice and during normal business hours, for the purpose of evaluating compliance with the Contract. If a breach or non-compliance issue is observed, (i) Seller shall remedy the same promptly; (ii) Buyer may suspend its performance hereunder until remedied; and (iii) Seller shall bear the costs of such audit.

5. INDEMNITY

5.1. From the date of delivery or from the completion of performance of the Contract, Seller shall keep Buyer indemnified in full against all loss, damages, injury, costs and expenses (including reasonable legal and other professional fees and expenses) awarded against or incurred or paid by Buyer as a result of or in connection with breach of Seller's obligations under the Contract.

5.2. Any replacement Goods supplied by Seller under clause 6.1(c) below will be subject to the indemnity in clause 5.1 above.

5.3. For the avoidance of doubt, Seller shall indemnify Buyer for latent defects from the date of delivery until the date of discovery.

5.4. The Seller will be directly liable and hold the Buyer harmless for any and all actions and/or omissions of its agents and subcontractors who supply or provide services to the Seller in connection with its obligations under the Contract.

6. REMEDIES

6.1. Without prejudice to any other right or remedy which Buyer may have, if any Goods are not supplied in accordance with, or Seller fails to comply with any of the terms of this Contract, Buyer shall be entitled to any one or more of the following remedies at its discretion, whether or not any part of the Goods have been accepted by the Buyer:

- (a) to rescind the Purchase Order in whole or in part;
- (b) to reject the Goods (in whole or in part) and return them to Seller at the risk and cost of Seller on the basis that Seller shall pay a full refund for them;
- (c) to give Seller the opportunity at Seller's expense either to remedy any defect in the Goods or to supply replacement Goods and carry out any other necessary work to ensure that the terms of the Contract are fulfilled;
- (d) to refuse to accept any further deliveries of the Goods;
- (e) to carry out at the Seller's expense any work necessary to make the Goods comply with the Contract;

7.2. Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its successors, assigns and customers, and users of Buyer's products, from and against all claims, suits, losses and damages, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs and expenses awarded, based upon a claim of infringement, or contributory infringement of any patent or copyright, or violation of another's trade secret rights, by reason of the use or sale of the Goods.

Where the Goods include services, the delivery shall be defined as at the date the Services were performed or the date that Buyer received the output of the Services.

9.3. Time for delivery shall be of the essence. If the Goods are not delivered on the due date then, without prejudice to any other rights it may have, Buyer may exercise the remedies set out in Clause 6.

9.4. Where Buyer agrees in writing to accept delivery by instalments the Contract shall be construed as a single contract in respect of each instalment. Nevertheless, failure by Seller to deliver any one instalment shall entitle Buyer at its option to treat the whole Contract as repudiated.

9.5. If the Goods are delivered to Buyer in excess of the quantities ordered, Buyer shall not be bound to pay for the excess and any excess shall be at Seller's risk and returnable at Seller's expense.

9.6. Buyer shall not be deemed to have accepted the Goods until it has had 7 days following delivery to inspect them.
